Beds & Loungers, Climbing & Perching, DIY Projects

When I saw this on Design-Milk last week, I immediately thought, "This is a cat's dream come true!" What kitty doesn't love to sleep in an open drawer? This is part of a project by Sovrappensiero Design Studio for Italian office furniture manufacturer Manerba, taking old office furniture and creating new products from the parts.

Just think of the possibilities here! I want everyone to hit the thrift shops and see what you can come up with. Please send photos of your creations!
